The festival programme was quite intense and various. The opening was held in the Hall of Fame - the major and historic hall of university. The festival was opened by Abilkhas Asylzhan, the chairman of SSS of KazNMU, who greeted guests, students, and then represented the programme of the event. The first greeting speech was spoken by Lyazzat Tasbolatovna Yeraliyeva, the director of the B. Atchabarov Scientific Research Institute. She congratulated all the students and professors with such a great event, which was held in our university the second time and became the traditional annual event. The guests of the festival were students of Kazakh-Russian Medical University, who pointed out that they are the first time on such an interesting and useful event, and thanked us for the invitation.

After the greeting speech started Scientific Forum of Young Scientists “Medical science in the modern World”. The purpose of the Forum was to acquaint students with the problems and development trends of modern medicine. Forum moderators were Nasyrova Ramilya and Asylzhan Abilkhas, the Chairman of SSS.

SSS KazNMU for festival organising! I wish there were more such kind of events!”. Then there was the training “Sign Language”, which students attended with good mood and great desire. The trainer was the sign language interpreter Vera Mikhailovna. After the training she shared with thought: “Sign language is one of the hardest and the same time it is the most beautiful language in the world. Considering that 1,5% of Kazakhstan population suffer from hearing and speech disorders, studying sign language is very actual nowadays, especially for the future medics. Thank you for invitation!”.
